

Check out our new website

The Resources for Living member website has a new look and feel. On the site, you'll find more ways to connect to services and explore fresh content. New features include filter options to quickly find topics of interest, a simpler navigation and an improved mobile experience to meet you wherever you are.

Personal login offers extra features

When you visit the site, you can login with your employer/organization username and access code. You'll have access to your Resources for Living benefit information and self-help tools.

You can also create a personal account to unlock extra features. With a personal account you'll have the option to:

- Save and access favorite content
- Get recommended topics of interest
- Sign up to receive our newsletter and webinar invites
- Improve connection to other services

To get started:

- Select 'Company log in/Register' and enter your Employer/Organization username and access code (previously called 'Password').
- Select 'Log in to site' to access the Resources for Living site.

Optionally, you can select 'Create personal account' to register for a personal account.

- Enter in your information and options and create a password.
- You'll receive an email with a secure verification link from resourcesforliving@web.rfl.com. Select the link to verify your account.

Log in to check out the new enhancements and resources available to you. And remember: We're here for you and your family 24/7/365.
